

Course Competency Report by Code

Code: AXT1

Teaching and Learning: ECE: The Arts, Movement, Health and Social Science Application (AXT1)

Course of Study: AXT1 - Teaching and Learning: ECE: The Arts, Movement, Health, and Social Science Integration and Course Level: Undergraduate Course Division: Senior
 Discipline: Early Childhood Education
 Course Type: One Assessment
 Department: Early Childhood Education

| COMPETENCY # | COMPETENCY NAME                                    | COMPETENCY TEXT  |
|--------------|--|--|
| 602.3.18     | Record Keeping                                     | The graduate maintains records of student performance on academic and behavioral measures.   |
| 602.3.22     | Teaching Across the Content Areas                  | The graduate uses strategies for oral language development and the teaching of reading, comprehension, writing, and numeracy within all content areas.   |
| 603.2.3      | Teacher Work Sample                                | The graduate provides credible evidence of successful implementation of a two-week, standards-based instructional unit.  |
| 607.5.11     | Aesthetic Development From Birth Through Grade 3   | The graduate draws on knowledge of early childhood development and the arts to support aesthetic development for infants, toddlers, and young children.  |
| 607.5.12     | Arts Curriculum and Instruction in Early Childhood | The graduate incorporates central concepts, inquiry tools, and structures of the arts, such as music, creative movement, dance, drama, and art in the design of learning experiences for young children. |
| 607.5.13     | Motor Development in Early Childhood               | The graduate designs learning experiences for infants, toddlers, and young children that support appropriate motor development.  |
| 607.5.14     | Health for Early Childhood                         | The graduate designs and supports learning environments and experiences for infants, toddlers, and young children that support the development of healthy habits and lifestyles.                         |
| 607.5.15     | Social Science Learning and Instruction            | The graduate uses the concepts, tools, and structures of developmentally appropriate social science education in the design of learning experiences for young children.                                  |