

Course Competency Report by Code

Code: C206

Ethical Leadership (C206)

Course of Study: C206 - Ethical Leadership
Course Level: Graduate
Course Division: Second Year Master's Discipline: Management
Course Type:
Department: Business

COMPETENCY #	COMPETENCY NAME	COMPETENCY TEXT
3008.1.1	Practical Relevance of Ethical Theories	The graduate assesses the practical relevance of leading ethical theories and concepts.
3008.1.2	Ethical Leadership and Code of Ethics	The graduate identifies influences on ethical leadership and analyzes a code of ethics.
3008.1.3	Policy and Program Development	The graduate develops policies, practices, procedures, and programs that foster organizational ethics and socially responsible behavior.
3008.1.4	Information Technology, Privacy and Data Security	The graduate makes ethical decisions for the use of information technology to maintain the security of data in information technology systems.
3008.1.5	Legal and Regulatory Requirements	The graduate analyzes applicable legal and regulatory requirements to determine whether organizations meet legal responsibilities.