

Course Competency Report by Code

Code: C214

Financial Management (C214)

Course of Study: C214 - Financial Management
Course Level: Graduate
Course Division: Second Year Master's Discipline: Finance
Course Type:
Department: Business

COMPETENCY #	COMPETENCY NAME	COMPETENCY TEXT
3015.1.1	The Financial Environment	The graduate examines the primary risk/return criteria regarding financial management in domestic and global environments.
3015.1.2	Financial Statement Analysis	The graduate evaluates company performance based on financial statements and other measures in order to provide recommendations.
3015.1.3	Valuation Skills	The graduate applies valuation skills to evaluate capital investment projects and the overall value of a firm.
3015.1.4	Capital Market Theory	The graduate applies capital market theory in financial decision making.
3015.1.5	Long-Term Investment Decisions	The graduate applies long-term investment management concepts to capital budgeting decision making.
3015.1.6	Capital Management	The graduate demonstrates the management of working capital to achieve the appropriate value for the firm.
3015.1.7	Government Regulation	The graduate analyzes applicable legal and regulatory requirements to determine whether organizations meet legal responsibilities and act with social responsibility.