

Course Competency Report by Code

Code: C215

Operations Management (C215)

Course of Study: C215 - Operations Management
Course Level: Graduate
Course Division: Second Year Master's Discipline: Management
Course Type:
Department: Business

COMPETENCY #	COMPETENCY NAME	COMPETENCY TEXT
3016.1.1	Quality Management Methods	The graduate applies quality management methods for continuous improvement in an organization.
3016.1.2	Capacity Planning, Location Analysis	The graduate designs capacity, process, layout, and location strategies.
3016.1.3	Work System Design and Scheduling	The graduate utilizes process and method analysis, measurement techniques, and scheduling concepts to design the work systems design.
3016.1.4	Operating Efficiency	The graduate employs just-in-time and lean systems to improve operating efficiency.
3016.1.5	Supply Chain	The graduate organizes the supply chain to create competitive advantage for an organization.
3016.1.6	Management and Planning	The graduate applies operations and inventory management requirements and concepts to achieve operating objectives.