Healthcare System Applications – C816

Course Feedback

Overview

Healthcare System Applications introduces students to information systems. This course includes important topics related to management of information systems (MIS), such as system development and business continuity. The course also provides an overview of management tools and issue tracking systems. This course has no prerequisites.

Competencies

- Health Information Systems and Business Process
  The graduate explains how information systems affect business processes within the healthcare industry.

- Systems Development
  The graduate analyzes the different methods of system development for the purpose of recommending an appropriate method for a project.

- Health Information Systems Management and Security
  The graduate analyzes the role of management in health information systems and the necessity for security and contingency plans.

- Healthcare IT Support
  The graduate justifies the need for information technology support and ways to manage the support processes in healthcare organizations.

Learning

Getting Started

Welcome to Healthcare System Applications! When you are ready to begin the course, select the “Go to Course Material” button to access Ucertify, the primary learning platform and where you will find your learning materials. Each topic in the course will relate to specific modules in Ucertify. A pacing
Assessments

Performance Assessment: Healthcare System Applications

Status: Not Attempted
Code: KVP1

Course Information

The Writing Center
WGU Library
Accessibility Policy
VitalSource Navigational Video

Course Instructor

junius.logan@wgu.edu