Healthcare Models and Systems – C982

Course Feedback

Overview

Healthcare Models and Systems provides an opportunity to analyze the evolution of healthcare models and systems. Students will apply leadership strategies to manage organizational changes and community affiliations. This course has no prerequisites.

Competencies

- Human Capital Management
  The graduate manages internal and external human relationships in healthcare organizations using management theories, methods, and techniques.

- Leading Change
  The graduate proposes solutions that use strategies and processes to lead effective healthcare organizational change.

- Enterprise Risk Management
  The graduate assesses operational, ethical, governance, regulatory, legal, and financial factors in healthcare that manage, mitigate, exacerbate, and shift risk.

- Innovative Solutions
  The graduate develops innovative solutions that use various models to address future challenges and emerging opportunities in the healthcare industry.

- Quality Management
  The graduate proposes organizational sustainability plans by using quality management principles and strategies.

- Principles and Application of Research
  The graduate explains how principles of research are applied when analyzing data to improve healthcare organizational outcomes.

- Technology Systems & Data Collection Strategies
  The graduate examines types of health information technology systems and strategies for data collection and management, including best practices for evaluating information systems for use in a healthcare organization.

- Healthcare Technology
  The graduate evaluates the challenges and opportunities in healthcare technology to promote better healthcare services.
Learning

Getting Started
Welcome to Healthcare Models and Systems! This course's area of study is about becoming better acquainted with healthcare systems. You will explore the Allen Discover section, complete the Allen Engage activities, and complete the course assignment worksheet. The assignments are designed to build the skills you need to complete the performance assessment. There are also leadership development activities in the Assessment section that will help you improve as a leader and a professional. To help you track your progress in the course, use the pacing guide located in the Course Information section. To get started, click "Go to Course Material."

Assessments

Performance Assessment: Healthcare Models and Systems
Status: Not Attempted
Code: RJP2

Course Information

Book a Course Faculty Appointment

Student Services
(877) 435-7948
studentservices@wgu.edu

IT Service Desk