Course Mentor Assistance
As you prepare to successfully demonstrate competency in this subject, remember that course mentors stand ready to help you reach your educational goals. As subject matter experts, mentors enjoy and take pride in helping students become reflective learners, problem solvers, and critical thinkers. Course mentors are excited to hear from you and eager to work with you.

Successful students report that working with a course mentor is the key to their success. Course mentors are able to share tips on approaches, tools, and skills that can help you apply the content you're studying. They also provide guidance in assessment preparation strategies and troubleshoot areas of deficiency. Even if things don't work out on your first try, course mentors act as a support system to guide you through the revision process. You should expect to work with course mentors for the duration of your coursework, so you are welcome to contact them as soon as you begin. Course mentors are fully committed to your success!

Preparing for Success

The information in this section is provided to detail the resources available for you to use as you complete this course.

Learning Resources

The learning resources listed in this section are required to complete the activities in this course. For many resources, WGU has provided automatic access through the course. However, you may need to manually enroll in or independently acquire other resources. Read the full instructions provided to ensure that you have access to all of your resources in a timely manner.

There may be some references to No Child Left Behind (NCLB) in the learning resources used with this course. Please be aware that, in December 2015, President Barack Obama signed the Every Student Succeeds Act, or ESSA. This new act replaced NCLB and reauthorized the 50-year-old Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). For more information:

Pacing Guide

The pacing guide suggests a daily structure to pace your completion of learning activities, webinars, and the assessment. It is provided as a suggestion and does not represent a mandatory schedule. Follow the pacing guide carefully to complete the course in 1 week. Feel free to speed up your pace to finish sooner!

Before beginning the course

1. You are advised to pass the objective assessment before attempting the performance task. The task can be completed in a timely fashion when you are well versed in the required terminology and strategies.
2. Email your assigned course mentor when you are ready to begin so you can receive the necessary support during the upcoming week.
3. Review the Lesson Planning Resources.
4. Review the Course Toolbox for supplemental resources.
5. Book time on your personal calendar for upcoming performance task webinar. Please check here to view this month's schedule.

Day 1

- If this is your first time writing a lesson plan, we recommend booking time with your assigned course mentor. We can get you off to a strong start!
- Part A: Select standard and do research online for lesson ideas and resources.

Day 2

- Part A: Write first draft of lesson plan using the Direct Instruction WGU template.
- Send your work to your assigned course mentor if you have any concerns.
Day 3

- Part B: Write first draft of justification.
- Send your work to your assigned course mentor if you have any concerns.

Day 4

- Revise Part A based on the suggestions of your course mentor.
- Book time with your course mentor if any comments need to be clarified.

Day 5

- Revise Part B based on the suggestions of your course mentor.
- Book time with your course mentor if any comments need to be clarified.

Day 6

- Submit task!
  - If you spend more than a week on the task, we recommend sending your current work to your assigned course mentor. We also suggest booking time with your course mentor so you can be supported as you wrap up the task.
